LEON COUNTY TAX COLLECTOR AWARDED "Outstanding County Treasurer" Award By The National Association of County Collectors, Treasurers & Finance Officers (NACCTFO)

The National Association of County Collectors, Treasurers, & Finance Officers (NACCTFO) awarded Leon County Tax Collector, Doris Maloy the prestigious "Victor E. Martinelli Outstanding Treasurer's Award" in recognition of her leadership and as a professional of the highest caliber in the operation of the Office of Tax Collector. The event was held at NACCTFO's Annual Meeting on July 9th in Charlotte, North Carolina.

NACCTFO is a professional organization affiliated with the National Association of Counties which promotes the highest standards of professionalism among its members nationwide.

The Honorable Nancy Weekss, Chair of the Nominations Committee, said, "a distinguished panel of judges who are not affiliated with NACCTFO or known to the organization selects the winner from the nominees who must, in turn, have demonstrated their outstanding achievements in local office development, improvements in cash management and other related programs together with civic, community, and family involvements and activities."

Mrs. Maloy said "Through participation in organizations such as NACCTFO, I have been fortunate to benefit from the highest quality training and to gain exposure to the latest and most respected techniques available to public finance officials. More importantly, I am able to bring that knowledge and experience home and apply it in ways that help me to do more with the available resources and, thus, to better serve the citizens of Leon County."

"It's Breezy, Quick and Easy!"
