Maloy completes UMSL training program

Earns Chancellor's Certificate in Public Administration from the University

The University of Missouri-St. Louis (UMSL) awarded the Chancellor's Certificate in Public Administration: Finance Master to Doris Maloy, Tax Collector of Leon County, FL. To qualify for the certification Maloy attended at least 100 hours of public administration training through UMSL's program in Public Policy Administration. The certificate was awarded at the recent Annual Meeting of the National Association of County Collectors, Treasurers, and Finance Officers (NACCTFO) on July 16, 2011, in Portland, OR.

"UMSL's Chancellor's Certificate Program gives county finance professionals an opportunity to further their educations and learn how to more efficiently administer the duties of their offices," said Dr. Brady Baybeck, Director and Associate Professor of the Public Policy Administration Program at UMSL, which coordinates the program. "Doris Maloy's completion of the program is a testament to her commitment to public service."
