The Leon County Tax Collector's Office Proudly Announces The Cross Creek Office (1210 E/F Capital Circle, South East) Will Become a FULL SERVICE Center on September 14, 2009 With the Addition of Driver Licensing Services

On Friday, August 28, 2009, the Leon County Tax Collector's Cross Creek customer service location in the Cross Creek Shopping Center at the intersection of Capital Circle South East and Apalachee Parkway will be closed to the public to allow installation of new Driver Licensing equipment. We regret any inconvenience this may cause our customers.

This office will re-open to the public at 8:30 AM on Monday, August 31, 2009 and, beginning September 14, 2009, Driver License services will begin to be offered at this location from 8:25 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday.

On August 28, 2009, the other Tax Collector locations will be open to serve the needs of the public, so customers with business to transact are encouraged to visit any of the following locations:

- Carriage Gate (3425 Thomas Ville Road, Suite 19)
- Westside (870 Blountstown Highway)
- Southside (3477 South Monroe Street, Suite 1-3)
- Heritage Plaza (2810 Sharer Road)*
- Bank of America Building(315 South Calhoun Street, Suite 210)*

*Driver Licensing Services are NOT offered at either the Heritage Plaza or Bank of America Building locations.

Leon County Tax Collector Doris Maloy said "We are very pleased to have new Driver Licensing equipment installed and look forward to offering the full range of Driver Licensing services in our Cross Creek location in addition to our Carriage Gate, Westside, and Southside locations. We are doing all we can in cooperation with the state Division of Driver Licensing to improve customer convenience here in Florida's Capital County".
